P. O. S. OF A. ENTERTAINMENT. Camp 178, Patriotic Order Sons of America, celebrated last evening in Mearns' hall with an entertainment and social. Instead of the customary musical and literary entertainment, the committee furnished one of the best programmes ever given under the auspices of the camp.

The principal feature was the American vitagraph, showing a series of animated pictures which were decidedly new, novel and interesting. Taken altogether they were undoubtedly the best ever shown in the city. The work of J. Stuart Blackton, shown in colored chalk sketches and in an humorous monologue, was amusing, instructive and decidedly clever. Mr. Blackton is an artist of recognized ability and made an instantaneous hit. Miss Matta Holmes, elocutionist and the wisest of all wisdom. The quickest way to make weak stomachs strong, to make sickly people well, is to use Hostetter's Stomach Bitters. It is the best medicine in the world for indigestion, dyspepsia, also liver or weak kidneys. It cures all stomach ills. It makes and keeps people well. A private R v on stamp should cover the neck of the bottle.

Beware of Imitations HOSSETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS.

Impersonator, and Albert E. Smith, prestidigitator, were not up to expectations, but what they done was well received. Mrs. Frank Malott furnished a varied programme of piano selections during the evening that were in keeping with the programme. The hall was crowded, and after the entertainment dancing was enjoyed for several hours.

The following programme was rendered by the older pupils:

- Memory Gems School Song, "Welcome Beautiful Christmas Day" School "Careless Santa Claus" Emily Thomas "The Golden Coins" Francis Jones Song, "Christmas Bells" Beatrice Hoff "A Christmas Wish" Gertrude Armstrong "The Little Beggar" Rhoda Watkins Song, "Santa Claus" School "The Cockey" Beatrice Hoff "Day of Days" Thomas Lewis Song, "Fill the Baskets Up" School "The Mistletoe Bough" Mable Jones "Kris Krinkle" Jennie Jones "The Three Kings" Benjamin Phillips, Frank Peeney, William Crossin, Mable Robinson, Nellie Hoff, Mabel Thomas, Helen Bass.
